

GUIDED ARTWALK STOPS

Follow along the guided tour to hear from featured artists and for a chance to win tickets to the Eugene Ballet Company's The Nutcracker!

1 5:30 PM | Shelton McMurphey Johnson House (303 Willamette St)

The Shelton McMurphey Johnson House showcases handmade wreaths by local artists. The wreaths will be available by silent auction through December 4th. Artists participating in the event include Jud Turner, Tamara Fountain, and Karen Rainsong. Community judges award prizes during this First Friday ArtWalk stop. Pictured wreath by James Trietsch & Ann Eikenberry.

2 6 PM | Studio Amiche (199 E 5th Ave, Suite 23, upstairs)

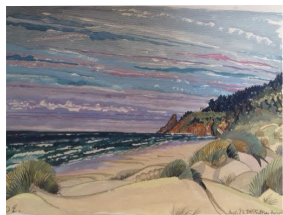

Studio Amiche features the work of Kathryn Hutchinson and Patsy Hand (right). They recently moved to a "New York" style loft. Kathryn showcases fine etchings and monotypes, along with oils. Patsy shows impressionistic and abstract work in several mediums, as well as several of her newer pieces based on a recent trip to Scotland.

3 6:30 PM | MODERN (207 E 5th Ave, Suite 105)

ArtWalk Highlight! "FRESH! The Art of Modern Jewelry Design" is an exhibit and sale/fundraiser featuring jewelry designs produced by current and former students from the Jewelry and Metalsmith Department at the School of Architecture and Allied Arts at the University of Oregon. The goal of the exhibit is to immerse the public into the process of jewelry design, from concept, sketch, prototypes, and evolutions to finished product.

4 7 PM | OUT ON A LIMB Gallery (191 E Broadway)

Marco Elliott shows landscapes from Provence, where he grew up and lived for almost 35 years, as well as recent paintings that reveal his fondness for the Oregon coast. He states, "Since moving to Oregon, I have rediscovered an old passion: plein air painting. I do love the adrenaline rush of tackling mano a mano the emotions conveyed by the Great Cosmic Outdoors and translating them in a state of astonished contemplation."

5 7:30 PM | Euphoria Chocolate Company (946 Willamette St)

"Fandom in Stitches" is a unique collection of quilts and quilted items inspired by popular shows, cult classics and cultural phenomenon, such as Dr. Who, Firefly, Harry Potter, Star Trek, Outlander, Jane Austen, and many more. During this ArtWalk stop, check out a demonstration of foundation paper piecing.
