

ARTWALK GUIDE PICK-UP LOCATION

1 Oregon Art Supply (1020 Pearl St)

Each year local artists Zoë Cohen, Jenny Gray, Ann Hamilton, Rebecca Mannheimer, Beth Robinson, and Sarah Sedwick give themselves a design challenge meant to inspire and push them outside their comfort zones to create surprises in the studio. Part of the idea of working with strict limitations is paradoxical. Setting specific limitations allows artists to creatively problem solve and grow through experimentation. The chosen focus brings a sense of continuity to the exhibit, as the works naturally relate to each other through the designated challenge. This year's prompt is "Tangled up in Blue" giving each artist the freedom to respond in any way they choose.

GALLERIES & STUDIOS

2 Art with Alejandro (5th Street Public Market, 246 E 5th Ave #224)

This month's theme is related to botanicals. Barbara Council Burney's oil paintings resemble 19th century botanical illustrations. Sabrena Annel's work questions the concept of impermanence in a series called 'Botanical Compositions,' which were created from outdoor plant matter, paint, and readymade objects. Also on display: New work by gallery owner Alejandro Sarmiento.

3 ArtCity Studios on Broadway (160 E Broadway, basement)

Founder of WheelHaus Arts, David "CP" Placencia shows a large collection of original paintings, including 3D Bubble art, local landscapes, animals, and abstracts.

Live bubble technique demo: 6-7pm. You will also be able to check out work by students of WheelHaus Arts. Eugene Printmakers are printing images celebrating Día de los Muertos from 6:30-8pm. Hand-printed "Vote" shirts and bandanas are also available for sale.

4 FUSE Jewelry Collective (112 E 13th Ave)

Visit this newly opened venue, a place for jewelry lovers to learn, shop, create, and connect. Check out the FUSE showroom, displaying collections by local jewelry designers and small-batch gift items. During the ArtWalk, don't miss live music, jewelry demos, and studio tours of the FUSE Classroom, offering weekly metalsmithing classes to the public!

5 Framin' ArtWorks (505 High St)

Work by oil painter Patti McNutt, whose pieces range from still-life to landscapes and beyond. Also: Oil still-life works, primarily fruits, by Mary Henzie.

6 Karin Clarke at the Gordon (590 Pearl St, Suite 105)

One-of-a-kind handmade jewelry made from precious metals by local artist Arianna Nicolai.

7 Karin Clarke Gallery (760 Willamette St)

"Icons of Nature," new work by Olga Volchkova, is a continued exploration of Volchkova's love of plants, celebrating their magical, historical, and beneficial qualities. Also on display: Select small paintings by Justin Bradshaw. Contemporary figurative painter Justin Bradshaw was born in London, but has been living in Italy for the last 20 years, where he works full time as an artist. Gallery owner Karin Clarke shares six of his exquisite oil paintings that she discovered while in Italy this summer.

8 The New Zone Gallery (110 E 11th Ave)

An eclectic mix of art created by New Zone members; "Face and Figure," paintings by Barbara Weinstein that celebrate the uniqueness of the live human; "Creative Diversity," examples of diverse media capturing the Spirit, the essence, and the heart of a moment in time by Shirley Collins; "Insightful Creations," work inspired by a love for the natural world by Carolyn Bloom, Betsy Huffsmith, and Rebecca LaMothe; and a new limited time display: "The 'Zotem Pole."

9 OSLP Arts & Culture Center (110 E 11th Ave, Suite C)

The celebration of OSLP Arts & Culture Program's 10-year anniversary continues! Stop by to see photos and artwork created throughout the years and share stories from the last decade.

10 Out of Step Tattoo & Gallery (1022 Willamette St)
