GALLERIES & STUDIOS

2 Art with Alejandro (5th Street Public Market, 246 E 5th Ave #224)

This vibrant art gallery and studio showcases diverse works by Alejandro Sarmiento. Visitors can explore an array of expressive paintings depicting different subjects and styles and often witness the artist at work.

3 ArtCity Studios on Broadway (160 E Broadway, basement)

Bring your phones and headphones to The Soul Success Medals for Humanity art experience by Arianne (Air) Taylor. Here, word and art communicate a unique celebration for the invisible strength that resides within the heart of humanity. Also, experience Nolan Day's "Astral Projection Mapping," as they illuminate a small section of our reality with a light bending audio-visual experience.

6:30 - Artist remarks with Air at ArtCity Studios on Broadway

4 Beudet Gallery at 5th St. Makers Row (590 Pearl St, Suite 106)

Recent jewelry creations by Charles Beudet for the summer of 2023.

5 Karin Clarke at the Gordon (590 Pearl St, Suite 105)

A changing inventory of paintings, prints, photography, cards, and mixed-media works by Northwest artists such as Robert Schlegel, Rick Bartow, Bets Cole, and more!

6 Karin Clarke Gallery (760 Willamette St)

Mark Clarke: Northwest Master, a varied exhibit of landscapes, figures, and abstract paintings from the estate of one of the gallery's most popular artists. Curated by the artist's daughter, Gallerist Karin Clarke, the show features nearly 30 works, mostly painted in acrylic.

7 The New Zone Gallery (110 E 11th Ave)

A mix of art by New Zone members; Neural Magic for Freedom and Fun, paintings about transformational integration through creative play by Sarjé Haynes; Transitive Fade, oil paintings exploring impending age by Wanda Seamster; Creative Essence, a show by Sheri Smith, Roka Walsh, Anna Golden, and Indra Stern-Hayworth, four women artists inspired by the natural world; live music by Rich Doss.

8 Windowfront Exhibitions

A 824 Charnelton - Vexing me! a multi-medium installation by Zoë Gamell Brown welcoming visitors to a Guyanese American meal. Her creative practice speaks to multiplicity within Guyanese identity and extensions of the Caribbean to the Gulf Coast. Themes in Zoë's work revolve around culinary catharsis, and collective and self-care.

B 99 W 10th Ave, south windows - Diversity Project, a photography installation created by Kenji Shimizu, aims to encourage and celebrate diversity from an immigrant's point of view. Born in Japan, Shimizu uses his passion for taking portraits that resemble Renaissance paintings to highlight the richness of diversity in our community and celebrate how diversity is already helping us.

SHOP & EXPLORE

12 Books with Pictures Eugene (99 W Broadway C)

Artwork by Ben Wrex, a non-binary, disabled, queer artist living in the Pacific Northwest who loves to paint, create illustrations, and draw comics.

13 Broadway Commerce Center (44 W Broadway)

The SLUG Queens are sliming their way onto the art scene with their first art exhibition SLUG Queen Art-stravaganza, featuring creations from a dozen Queens in a variety of mediums including paintings, prints, quilts, textile art, and sculpture.

14 Epic Seconds (30 E 11th Ave)

The One Wall Gallery presents the two-person, two-location exhibit Parallel Lands, featuring John Richardson and Benjamin Terrell. At first glance there may only be subtle similarities between the artists; one portrays nonobjective space with pencil only, and the other uses landscape to imply grand spaces with oil paint and stain. But both artists share a curiosity for how space and shape relate and what cannot be fully articulated.

15 Eugene Public Library (100 W 10th Ave, Newspapers and Magazines Room, 2nd floor)

Momentary Emotions, paintings by Uyen-thi Nguyen. Nguyen volunteers on the Springfield Arts Commission, creates youth art programs at Emerald Art Center, and is a member of several local artist groups. Music 6-7pm: The Olivia Fields Quintet plays jazz standards and originals.

16 Flux Crystals (280 W Broadway)

Heather Sterling-Minder's art depicts the figure in imagined, ethereal, and dreamlike spaces. She incorporates allegory and symbolism to convey a message, and represents the individual spirit of each human being.

EAT & DRINK

9 J. Scott Cellars on 5th Tasting Room (207 E 5th Ave, #105)

Jenifer Billman/Mann paints impressionist landscapes while Carolyn Quinn exhibits The Practice of Discovery, a series of abstracts.

10 One Vision Nutrition (946 Willamette St)

Hand Made, oil and watercolor paintings by Robert Canaga using handmade paints, created by either grinding rocks into paint or by laking flowers for pigment.

Carolyn Quinn, J Scott Cellars on 5th Tasting Room

11 Starlight Lounge (830 Olive St)

Jacob Lee uses acrylic and spray paint to create mostly abstract art, as well as work featuring pop culture characters. 21+ only
